WEATHER IS A HANDICAP IN STRAITS

By SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEI, Formosa, AP—Bad weather kept Chinese Nationalist supply ships from trying to reach Quemoy today but didn't stop the Communist bombardment of the offshore island.

It was the second straight day that inclement weather in the Formosa Strait halted movement of ammunition and other supplies under U.S. naval escort to the beleaguered outpost.

In Taipei, sharp resentment was stirred by the proposal of Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) that the United States persuade the Nationalists to withdraw from the Quemoy and Matsu islands during the projected U.S. diplomatic talks with Red China.

An official of Cabinet rank who would not be quoted by name said, "We'll never abandon Quemoy and Matsu. No matter what happens, we'll hold on and fight for them. We've made our position clear time and again and it's unchangeable."

The Nationalists regard the off-shore islands as jump-off points for the invasion they say they will launch someday to retake the mainland. Giving up the islands would imply giving up the dream of reconquest.

Red artillery opened against the Quemoy's at midnight and by 9:20 a. m. had battered them with 4,618 shells, the Nationalist Defense Ministry said. The fire landed in short but savage barrages on Quemoy, Little Quemoy and the Tatan islets.

The heaviest bombardment was trained on Quemoy's Satao beach, the island's best landing point. No supplies are known to have reached the besieged island since Red shells blew up an ammunition ship on the beach Monday.

The Defense Ministry refused to confirm or deny reports that supplies were being parachuted to the islands at night.

The U. S. 7th Fleet, which has been escorting national ships to the three-mile limit off Quemoy, was bolstered by the arrival of a third cruiser, the Los Angeles, to join the Columbus and Vice Adm. Wall M. Beakley's flagship, the Helena.

Contestant Is Stuck in Booth On ABC Quiz Show

NEW YORK (AP)—John Burns stepped into the isolation booth on an ABC-TV quiz show, answered some questions and tried to step out.

The door stuck. Cindy Lindt, an assistant to quizmaster Johnny Carson, tried to help, turning the knob on the outside.

Contestant and assistant worked in opposite directions, stripping the set screw. Then the knob wouldn't work.

Carson began to ad lib. Burns, 25, sat down in the booth to wait for help.

Stagehands took the hinges off the door and Burns was freed. He had been trapped about 12 minutes.

Before becoming trapped Tuesday, Burns, a professional poll taker, and his wife, Lorraine, had managed to win $2,500 on "Who Do You Trust?"

Later, Mrs. Burns answered another $500 question, bringing their total winnings to $3,000. They will continue on the program.

Ike Leaves It Up to Adams Any Decision on Resigning

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A responsible Republican official said today President Eisenhower has left to Sherman Adams the decision whether he ought to resign.

This official, who declined to be quoted by name, said that Adams himself must determine whether his presence as chief of the White House staff is hurting Republican candidates in the contest for control of Congress.

Adams became the subject of controversy last June with disclosure he had accepted gifts and favors from Bernard Goldfine, a Boston industrialist involved in several matters before federal agencies. Both Adams and Goldfine described the actions as those of old friends, and both denied that any favors to Goldfine were involved.

Clamor for Adams' removal was renewed after the defeat of Re-

Justice Dep't Brief Insists No Special Law Needed To Acquire Land From Indians

By JOHN KOENIG JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Indians are entitled to no more special treatment than whites when their land is needed for public improvements, the Justice Department says.

The case at hand: The Seneca Indians' argument that special legislation is required to condemn their lands for construction of a 111 million dollar flood control dam at Kinzua, Pa.

Their plea is before the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals here. Edward E. O'Neill, attorney for the Senecas, told the court in a brief filed Aug. 15 that inclusion of the Kinzua Dam in a general public works appropriations bill is not specific enough.

The Indians were given their land in western New York State by a 1794 treaty signed by George Washington, O'Neill said. He maintained that only special legislation can take it away.

In an answering brief filed yesterday, Justice Department Attorney Roger P. Marquis had this reply:

"The alleged rule that general statutes do not affect Indian rights unless they are specifically referred to neither exists nor operates to frustrate the clear intention of Congress."

"There are no special requirements regulating the form of congressional authorization of acquisition of Indian lands as contrasted with lands in white ownership."

Marquis asked that the appeal be denied.

Throughout its consideration of a one million dollar appropriation in 1957 to begin actual construction of the dam, congress had in mind the Senecas' opposition, Marquis said.

"In 1941 Congress was told that Indian lands would be flooded by the project," the brief said. "Nevertheless it approved the project as planned without qualifications as to Indian rights."

Because a lower court was aware of this, Marquis argued in the brief, it denied a Seneca petition for an injunction to halt construction of the dam. That was how the case reached the Court of Appeals.

Seneca Attorney O'Neill has avowed that he will go to the U. S. Supreme Court if he loses here. A Court of Appeals hearing is expected possibly next month.

The anticipated flooding of a large portion of their 31,000-acre tract is expected possibly next month.

Government Approves Anthracite Expressway

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Highways Department has federal approval today for its proposed location of a disputed section of the Interstate Anthracite Expressway.

The U. S. Bureau of Public Roads gave its endorsement Tuesday to the department's proposed location of the section through the hard coal counties 40 miles east of the Susquehanna River.

The approval overruled contentions by the Susquehanna Expressway Assn. that the route follow the river to the west instead of the department-backed route east of the river.

Atomic Device To Be Detonated From Balloon

LA SVEGAS, Nev. (AP)—An atomic device will be detonated from a balloon this month to launch the Atomic Energy Commission's fall nuclear test series.

The AEC said Tuesday the first shot won't come before Sept. 16. Next on the AEC's schedule will be a balloon shot sometime after Sept. 20, followed by a shot from a 50-foot tower in October. Underground detonations are also planned for October.

Child Killed and Two Brothers Hurt in Crash

CHICORA, Pa. (AP)—A five-year-old girl was killed and her two brothers injured Tuesday in a car and truck collision on Route 68 near Chicora.

Killed was Ruth Rumbaugh of Karns City, R. D. 2. Her brother, Richard, 17, the car driver today was listed in serious condition at Butler County Memorial Hospital. The other brother, Jack, 14, was reported in fair condition.

The truck driver, John Lucas of Baxter, Jefferson County escaped injury.

DRILLER ELECTROCUTED INDIANA, Pa. (AP)—Vernon Bittner, 27, of Somerset, R. D. 2, was electrocuted Tuesday. The drilling rig on which he was working near Dilltown touched a high tension wire.

He was working on a gas well project for the Ferguson Drilling Co. of Tulsa, Okla.

Western Star's Nag Mixes With Extras

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Shadow, a chestnut horse who is Bat Masterson's mount in the Masterson TV series, is missing, Ralph McCutcheon, Shadow's owner, said. "He probably just got mixed up with some cast horses and is off on location." The cast horses are for the extras to ride.

New Hampshire Newspaper Says Adams Is Through

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—The summer White House today denied a published report that Sherman Adams, target of hot fire in the Bernard Goldfine case, has resigned as President Eisenhower's chief aide.

LACONIA, N. H. (AP)—The Laconia Evening Citizen said today it has learned that Sherman Adams has resigned his post as presidential assistant.

The newspaper said its information came from a Washington officeholder, quite friendly to Gov. Adams, who asked that his identity not be disclosed.

At President Eisenhower's vacation headquarters in Newport, R. I., White House officials were not immediately available for comment.

The Citizen said it was advised that Adams, a former New Hampshire governor, has left the White House and is on a Canadian fishing trip.

Adams has been under severe criticism since a congressional investigation heard testimony that he received gifts and free hotel accommodations from Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine.

Altoona Man New Head Of League of Cities

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Joseph S. Martin, 47-year-old Altoona councilman, is the new president of the Pennsylvania League of Cities. He succeeds Jerome E. Parker of Scranton, who was named a director-at-large.

Others elected at the group's annual convention Tuesday were Mayor Arthur J. Gardner of Erie, vice president; and Mayor Andrew J. Jakomus of McKeesport, director-at-large.

Re-elected were Chester E. Rogers of Easton, secretary; Lawrence T. Barnes of Harrisburg, treasurer; John N. O'Neill of Harrisburg, executive director; and Faye L. McCall of Harrisburg, administrative assistant.

The League also voted a dues increase from $3 to $12 in 1959 and from $12 to $16 in 1960 for each 1,000 population. It said the dues hike was to increase services and expand office personnel.

President Plans Visit to Ligonier On September 26

LIGONIER, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower will inspect Old Fort Ligonier Sept. 26.

The announcement of the visit was made Tuesday at the summer White House in Newport, R. I.

It has not been determined whether Eisenhower will be traveling to Ligonier from Newport, Washington or his farm home at Gettysburg.

Details of the President's trip will be worked out later.

The invitation to Eisenhower was extended some time ago by financier Richard K. Mellon, who has been active in the restoration of the 200-year-old fort.

The British built Fort Ligonier 200 years ago this month. It was part of a line of fortification stretching westward to Fort Pitt, now the site of Pittsburgh.

The president's acceptance gave this western Pennsylvania community a big shot in the arm since his inspection trip coincides with a bicentennial celebration opening Sept. 21 and extending Sept. 27.

Surprises Scarce as Polling Officials Total Results in Ten Primary Contests

ADDITIONAL GAINS FOR INTEGRATION

By The Associated Press

Integration made two additional breakthroughs in the South Tuesday.

One bastion of segregation fell when two Negro students registered at a Louisiana State University branch in New Orleans.

The other breakthrough came when a federal judge ordered Negroes admitted to white schools at Charlottesville, Va.

Meanwhile, the Justice Department offered full cooperation in preventing violence and disorder at Little Rock if the U. S. Supreme Court orders prompt integration there.

The U. S. Supreme Court meets Thursday to review a Federal District Court order for a 30-month breathing spell in integration at Little Rock's Central High School.

The Justice Department's offer was in letters from Atty. Gen. William Rogers to Little Rock's city manager and school board president. Rogers suggested a cooperative federal-local plan, but emphasized that the primary responsibility for maintaining peace and order rests with the state and its subdivisions.

The plan involves use of injunction proceedings against those who oppose integration by unlawful acts. Such injunctions have been granted with success during integration disorders at Clinton, Tenn. and Hoxie, Ark.

Backed by a federal court order, two New Orleans teenagers became the first Negroes to register—without incident—as the new commuter's college opened.

Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana said he is certain the order will be appealed. The college is designed to take some of the student load off the main campus at Baton Rouge.

In Virginia, Federal Judge John Paul ordered 12 of 33 Negro applicants admitted to a white elementary school and a white high school in Charlottesville. Paul overrode pleas that integration might bring on disorders.

Atty. Gen. A. S. Harrison Jr. of Virginia thus may take two requests for stays to the Circuit Court of Appeals in Baltimore Thursday. The other case involves Paul's Monday injunction permitting 22 Negroes to attend a white high school at Front Royal in Warren County.

Unless Paul or the appeals court stays his rulings, the two Charlottesville schools and the Warren County school will close under Virginia law which bars the operation of any integrated school.

At Van Buren, Ark., white students protesting high school integration agreed to return to class, but a spokesman said if (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Dag Reported To Have Failed in Mid-East Mission

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Dag Hammarskjöld is reported to have failed on the primary objective of his Middle East mission—arranging a truce between Jordan and the United Arab Republic so British troops can withdraw from Jordan.

The only thing the U.N. secretary general has accomplished so far in his talks in Cairo, Baghdad and Amman has been to provide a cooling-off period for Middle East tensions, diplomatic sources said.

Hammarskjöld came to the middle East to arrange for the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan. The Lebanese situation already was quieting after the election of Gen. Fuad Chehab to succeed Camille Chamoun as president, and the American forces generally are expected to withdraw soon after Chehab takes office on Sept. 24.

But Jordan's King Hussein and Premier Samir Rifai are reported afraid that the suspension in U.A.R. President Nasser's campaign to unseat him is only temporary. A diplomatic source in Amman said Nasser had refused (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Soviet Press Tempers Attacks on the U. S.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet press tempered attacks on the United States in the Far East crisis today by focusing on the possibility of peaceful negotiations.

Charges of U. S. armed intervention in the Far East are still strong in the Russian papers but they are not so violent as before Premier Khrushchev's letter to President Eisenhower earlier in the week. Khrushchev urged that the United States "show sense" in the dispute by abstaining what he called a policy of threats.

The press focusing on negotiations was an apparent pitch for the United States to recognize Communist China.

Old-Time Political Debate Agreed on By Scott-Leader

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The prospect of an old-fashioned face-to-face political debate shaped up today, featuring Gov. Leader and his Republican opponent for the U. S. Senate, Rep. Hugh Scott.

Scott, on Tuesday, accepted a challenge from the governor to a debate, with one proviso: that the subject matter not be limited.

A spokesman for the governor said "we will do our utmost" to work out the details.

Gov. Leader invited the debate, but suggested that it be limited to the recession and President Eisenhower's veto of the Area Redevelopment Bill, which would have given Pennsylvania some 45 million dollars in the future for grants to municipalities and loans to industry.

Scott answered the challenge this way:

"Delighted to debate with you on television. But sorry, no artificial limits. I insist on being fair with the voters of Pennsylvania."

"All issues are vital. Let's not hide our views on any of them."

Democrats have indicated, however, they are going to make the Eisenhower veto of the Area Redevelopment Bill a major campaign issue. Sen. Joseph M. Barr, in a statement at Harrisburg, took a swipe at Arthur T. McGonigle, GOP candidate for governor, on the issue.

Expeditionary Force to Cuba Is Intercepted

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Border patrolmen, customs and FBI agents, sheriff's deputies and city police intercepted an expeditionary force headed for Cuba early today and arrested more than 30 uniformed men.

Charles E. Wyatt, supervising agent in charge of customs at Miami, said he had reports 31 men were arrested; but 34 were held in jail and one was to outrun a border patrol vessel.

Agents fired several shots in the air to halt the expeditionary force aboard the motor vessel Harpoon when it attempted to land at the harbor at Port Everglades.

"They put up resistance, but did not return the fire," Wyatt said. "They threw munitions overboard, jammed the engine and tried to sink the vessel."

Wyatt said the activity had been under surveillance for several days and it definitely was intended for Cuba, where rebel forces have been battling the government of President Fulgencio Batista for many months.

TRUE-TO-FORM POLITICAL PATTERNS PREVAILING IN MOST SECTIONS OF NATION

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Democrats, turning out in record numbers, posted major voting gains in Tuesday's 10-state primary elections.

The party upsurge stood out particularly in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Utah. It came on the heels of Democratic victories in Maine on Monday.

The strength of the Democratic turnout featured what was otherwise true-to-form voting in the year's last big series of primary contests for Congress and governor.

Hot party contests may have played a big part in getting out the Democratic voters.

Generally, the established political pattern prevailed as Republicans and Democrats tapped their candidates Tuesday in Florida, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Arizona, Colorado, Utah and Washington.

These were the major results:

1. Sen. Spessard Holland defeated former Sen. Claude Pepper in the 58-year-old liberal's bid for a return to the U. S. Senate in the Florida Democratic primary, equivalent to election in that state. Near-complete returns gave Holland, a conservative, a victory margin of more than 80,000 votes.

Pepper blamed his defeat on the school segregation issue which found Holland advocating a stronger fight against integration.

2. Gov. Ernest McFarland of Arizona was en route to clearing the first hurdle in his attempt to return to the Senate by rolling up an early 2-1 lead over Democratic National Committeeman Stephen Langmade. McFarland's November opponent would be Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater, the man who ousted him in 1952. Goldwater was renominated without opposition.

3. Two senators—Arthur Watkins (R-Utah) and William Proxmire (D-Wis)—handily beat back intraparty challenges but may be faced with serious trouble in November because of heavy vote totals polled by the opposition parties in their primaries. Watkins will be pitted against Democrat Frank E. Moss and former Gov. J. Bracken Lee, running as an independent. Proxmire, who was named to GOP Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's seat in a special election last year, will seek a six-year term against Roland E. Steinle, nominated without opposition by the Republicans.

Cut in Federal Employees Urged By White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Urging a Spartan economy, President Eisenhower is asking for a cut of at least 2 per cent this year in the number of federal employees.

Eisenhower's call for the payroll reduction was contained in a letter sent out Tuesday by Budget Director Maurice Stans to the heads of all agencies and departments.

The President said the cut is needed to offset a $50-million-dollar pay increase granted federal employees this year.

The federal civilian payroll totaled 2,361,432 in July.

In what might be another economy move, the Pentagon deferred tapping the money voted by Congress this year to build four extra missile-firing atomic submarines.

In summarizing planned shipbuilding projects during the present fiscal year, Secretary of the Navy Thomas Gales said Tuesday there would be no immediate announcement of plans to build the four subs.

During Senate hearings on the matter, Secretary of Defense McElroy said further testing and development is needed.

Postponement of Court Action Is Fought by Bowers

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Dauphin County Court has a petition from a Reading industrialist opposing any postponement of court action in his suit against the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board.

Clarence P. Bowers, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate in the May 20 primary, is contesting the right of Gov. Leader to remove him from the board.

Bowers contends he was removed because of his political activities on behalf of Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, who opposed the Democratic organization in the primary. He sought the gubernatorial nomination, with Bowers as his running mate.

The case was scheduled for Oct. 7, but Atty. Gen. Thomas D. McBride asked the court to (Turn to Page Sixteen)

Coya Knutson Bolsters Her Lead in Renomination Bid

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Rep. Coya Knutson (D-Minn.) bolstered her lead today in a renomination bid that her husband claims is breaking up their home life. It spiced a primary election in which Democrats were outpolling Minnesota Republicans by hefty margins.

The size of the Democratic advantage apparently posed a major threat to the Senate seat held by Republican Edward Thye.

Mrs. Knutson, a 45-year-old former schoolmarm, was the only congressional incumbent who ran into major trouble.

On returns from 394 of 641 precincts in the state's 9th District, she had 12,188 votes to 10,572 for Marvin Evenson, 46-year-old Moorhead, Minn., businessman. Evenson ran almost dead even with the congresswoman through much of the early going.

Evanson had among his supporters Andrew Knutson, the congresswoman's husband who has waged a summer-long campaign to get her to quit politics and come home to Oklee, Minn.

Oklee, where Mrs. Knutson campaigned Sunday but didn't visit her husband, gave her an unofficial 107-44 margin over Evenson.

They won nomination easily. So did his November opponent for the Senate, Rep. Eugene McCarthy (D-Minn.) 42-year-old congressman who turned back Hjalmar Peterson, a former state governor and long-time office holder.

Two years ago the total Democratic governor vote in the primary was only 700 more than the Republican.

Democrats now control most of the state offices, one Senate seat and five of nine House seats.

Northern Firms Ignoring Race Tension in South

NEW YORK (AP)—Race tensions in the South have kept a few Northern companies from locating plants there but have failed to block continued rapid industrialization of Dixie, the Wall Street Journal said Tuesday.

In such states as North Carolina, Alabama and Georgia, state development commissions, public utilities, banks and other site promoters claim a greater rate of new plant and equipment spending this year than last, the paper said.

Louisiana is about even with a year ago.

In most other states, the industrialization pace is lagging slightly behind 1957, but the lag generally is smaller than that for the nation as a whole.

Where there is a lag, Southern state officials blame it on recession, not on race.

Race relations is just one of about 700 factors management considers in locating a plant, according to H. McKinley Conway Jr., publisher of the Manufacturers Record, a Southern trade magazine published in Atlanta, Ga.

According to the magazine, new plants being built in 16 Southern states during the first half of this year totaled 683, an improvement over both the 672 in the first half of 1957 and 550 in the 1956 period.

The Journal interviewed dozens of Northern businessmen.

In Little Rock, Ark., which has come to symbolize the South's anti-integration efforts, not a single major new plant has been located in the city's metropolitan area and no land in Little Rock's 1,000-acre industrial district, just outside of town, has been sold since May 1957.

Many Little Rock persons blame "unfair" prominence given the local racial problems by the national press.

"They've tarred and feathered our area," complains W. P. Rock, executive director of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

Mirrored in Our Times

This week's Saturday Evening Post certainly hit it with the poetic "Tranquilizer for Mother" penned by Lee Fanta Shyer: "Farewell to beach and balmy breezes, Lovely summer has departed. Embrace instead the autumn bonus, School has started!"

Quiet, isn't it? Now that the week-day routine has resumed and fall is in the air. Speaking of autumn bonuses—have you noted the almost imperceptible change in our lovely trees of late? Here and there, a tinge of delicate yellow or orange or even a decided red glow? The smell of autumn carries with each crisp breeze and even though we may anticipate more hot days, 'twill be Indian Summer and a passing illusion. But let's continue this theme a bit—consider this autumn bonus more carefully (let's also consider the matter of scent)—because from Paris, the finest is sent in scent! Here's news of a blessed event in scent—practically heaven-sent—an all-occasion gift set that's definitely "finest from France"—imported in limited quantities—so be sure to order several while there is still time!

Worth's "Je Reviens"—a full eight ounce of perfume, two ozs. of Eau de Cologne, made, exquisitely packaged and sealed in France. Truly a perfect gift or personal possession at only $5. There's only a precious supply of this wonderful all-occasion gift set at The Warren Drug Store—so order yours today.

With the advent of fall, some activities cease to exist (for many folks, that is) and golf is one sport that suffers when it's wet and cold. These are the days when the duffle bag arrives home filled with you know what, girls! Odds and ends of dirty clothes that, at first glance, will defy the strongest washing powder and the finest machine! At the same time, most men realize that their wardrobe needs replenishing. The minor items we take for granted—socks, shirts, ties, underwear, sweaters, etc. The big things become very important with all eyes turned to fall suits and topcoats...and, when you come right down to it, what is better than imported woolen? We stopped to admire a suit and topcoat in a favorite men's shopping center—and, actually, we're at a loss to describe these handsome creations. It would be much more sensible if you'd stop and see for yourself.

That's right! STOP—at THE STYLE SHOP—and see the "best in menswear" for yourselves. Imported woolens styled to "suit" you plus the usual outstanding selection of what you want and need for this fall and winter. No need to wait—or hesitate! Just STOP—at THE STYLE SHOP!

Isn't it amazing? You register surprise; you register utter amazement; you register a letter—in fact you can register just about everything! You register happiness; you register sorrow, you register at a hotel—but do YOU register to vote? This is the most precious registration of all for every citizen—yet, too many fail to enjoy the privilege! Are you planning to cast your vote on November 4th? Are you registered to do so? If not—DO—and do it before September 15th. After that, friends, it's too late!

Picnic at Polk State School for Retarded Children

Warren County Chapter, Pennsylvania Association for Retarded Children, recently entertained 38 boys for a picnic at Polk State School. Lunch was served by members of the local chapter and several interested persons who are not members of the local chapter but have volunteered to help the group. Highlights of the day were games and relay races, with prizes going to the winners. Each boy was also presented a gift.

Circus Day at Polk State School will be held Saturday, September 13, the parade to start at 1:15 p. m. Bands and floats will be included as before, with as many children participating as it is possible to arrange. Activities on the Circus grounds will continue throughout the afternoon until supper-time, and will resume with the onset of darkness and fireworks.

No state funds are used for Circus Day and parent help is needed to insure success for this event. The Warren Chapter has recruited 10 volunteers. The public is invited.

The School has also announced another course for volunteers, will be held October 21 and 28 from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. The volunteers are engaged in the following work: Library, physical therapy department, dietary department, handwork and recreational activities. There is a great need for volunteer help in State Schools for the retarded, and anyone interested in taking the course may call Mrs. John Niedzialek, 2669-J, or Mrs. Bolinger 1542.

Reprimands for State Troopers in Lawrence Case

HARRISBURG (AP)—Col. Earl J. Henry, state police commissioner, said today three troopers have been "severely reprimanded" for circumstances that led to the cancellation of a speeding ticket for the son of Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh.

Gerald Lawrence, 19-year-old son of the Democratic candidate for governor, was arrested last July 27 for driving at speeds of between 85 and 90 miles an hour in a 50 mile zone in Butler County.

The charge against Lawrence and another speeding motorist were dropped when it was learned that the patrol car used in clocking the two drivers had not had its required monthly speedometer inspection.

Henry said the patrol car had been loaned to another substation when a cruiser assigned to that post had been damaged. When the patrol car was returned to the Butler area, he said no check was made on the speedometer.

"It's the first time that it's happened since I took command," Henry explained. "We have taken steps to see that it doesn't happen again."

The ticket was cancelled by a justice of the peace when trooper Charles E. Pierce said it was invalid because the speedometer had not been checked.

"Patrolman Pierce certainly must be held accountable in this case and he is one of the three men reprimanded," Henry said. However, he declined to name the other two.

RADIO and TV

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — Not long ago, when Bob Hope was playing a state fair, he muffed a punch line and yelled, "I don't know what I'm doing!" A local reporter duly wrote in his paper that Bob Hope said he didn't know what he was doing.

Hope, laughing about it as he hastened through New York the other day, said he learned long ago that "you can die with a gag."

But Hope, a man with an endless supply of gags, is as far from dying as a comedian can be.

On Sept. 19, for example, he launches his new television season with the musical "Roberta" — which was his first successful Broadway show back in 1933 — over NBC-TV. Anna Maria Alberghetti and Howard Keel costar in the live 90-minute production.

Those who know Otto Harbach's and Jerome Kern's "Roberta" only as the source of such songs as "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and "The Touch of Your Hands" should be reminded, in Hope's words, that the musical play "is full of laughs."

Hope plays a bandleader named Huckleberry Haines, an American bandleader who goes to Paris and becomes embroiled with girls, gags and harrowing situations. In the course of the show Hope does two monologues — which is one more than he usually does on a TV show, he points out. "Roberta" is the first of eight television shows he plans to do in the forthcoming season. Three will be done on foreign soil — one of them, he plans, from Rio de Janeiro. He hopes to do one domestic show based on the New Orleans Mardi Gras. With the exception of "Roberta," all the Hope shows will be on film under present plans.

Hope seems to have fared better at the hands of the critics than any comedian with much tenure on television. While agreeing that is true, he says that "the kings aren't in style these days."

One reason for his continuing popularity on television, he feels, is the fact that he hasn't been overexposed. For another thing he always tries to work around the talents of his guests and not retain a rigid program formula.

"BACK THE DRAGONS"

It is gratifying to observe the enthusiasm manifested by public-spirited citizens generally in the campaign that has been inaugurated to arouse interest and support in High School athletics, generally, and football in particular.

Not since the days of Roy Russell and his "pep demonstrations" of forty years ago, has there been so much interest aroused in High School athletics, and it is a foregone conclusion that the results will be reflected, not only in gate receipts but in team morale.

The campaign to "Back the Dragons" is not restricted to the group that conceived the idea and proceeded to follow it up with concerted action, but should concern every resident of the area interested in school affairs.

Your opportunity will come this weekend when students will be soliciting the general public to purchase season tickets for the five home games at War Memorial Field, starting with the big opener Saturday at 1:30 with the Corry Beavers. "Back the Dragons!"

WELCOME TAX RELIEF

Word from Internal Revenue that all people with income below $10,000 in wages will hereafter be able to use the so-called short form in reporting their income tax is welcome news indeed.

Up to now only taxpayers earning less than $5,000 in wages could use the handy card form. It is estimated some 31 million people have a prospect of using the newly authorized simple method.

This is tax relief of a sort, and it comes none too soon. Though government tax officials keep promising to make the long tax forms simpler and more understandable, a good many taxpayers seem to feel that their tinkering only makes the things more complicated. Certainly the 1957 form was no model of clarity.

So, if we can't really have simpler long forms, next best would appear to be arranging it so fewer people have to use them.

All right, Washington, that's the word on shorter tax forms. Now, anything to report on shorter taxes?

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's no wonder Secretary of State Dulles indicated the United States might make concessions to the Red Chinese if they're good boys. He has problems.

All of them can be telescoped into one big question:

How long can this country go on having crisis after crisis with the Chinese Communists without getting into war over the small Quemoy and Matsu islands near the China mainland?

This time American determination and strength may have chilled the Communists, particularly since they lack a navy, and perhaps lacked atomic bombs and enough planes to take a chance on war.

Next time, with help from the Soviet Union, they may risk the chance it's a situation which can hardly go on indefinitely.

When the Reds drove Chiang Kai-shek off the mainland—to Formosa, 100 miles across the straits—his retreating troops grabbed Quemoy, three miles off the China coast, and the Matsu, 10 miles off the coast.

This country is pledged by treaty with Chiang to defend Formosa from Red attack. It must do that. But Congress left it to the President to decide whether it was necessary to fight for Quemoy and the Matsu to defend Formosa.

Chiang complicated things for the United States—although Dulles told a news conference Tuesday this country didn't object to moving a third of his army from Formosa to Quemoy.

That put a tremendous potential obligation on the United States to defend Quemoy. Loss of a third of his army would truly make Chiang a paper tiger on Formosa where he could hardly survive.

very long anyway without American help.
So, when the Reds bombarded Quemoy and the Matsu, the United States got involved. Were those islands by themselves really necessary for the defense of Formosa? If they were, the President could order a fight to protect them.

Dulles said: "What is involved here is not just two pieces of real estate—Quemoy and Matsu. Obviously, if that was all that was involved, there would be no basis for action on the part of the United States."

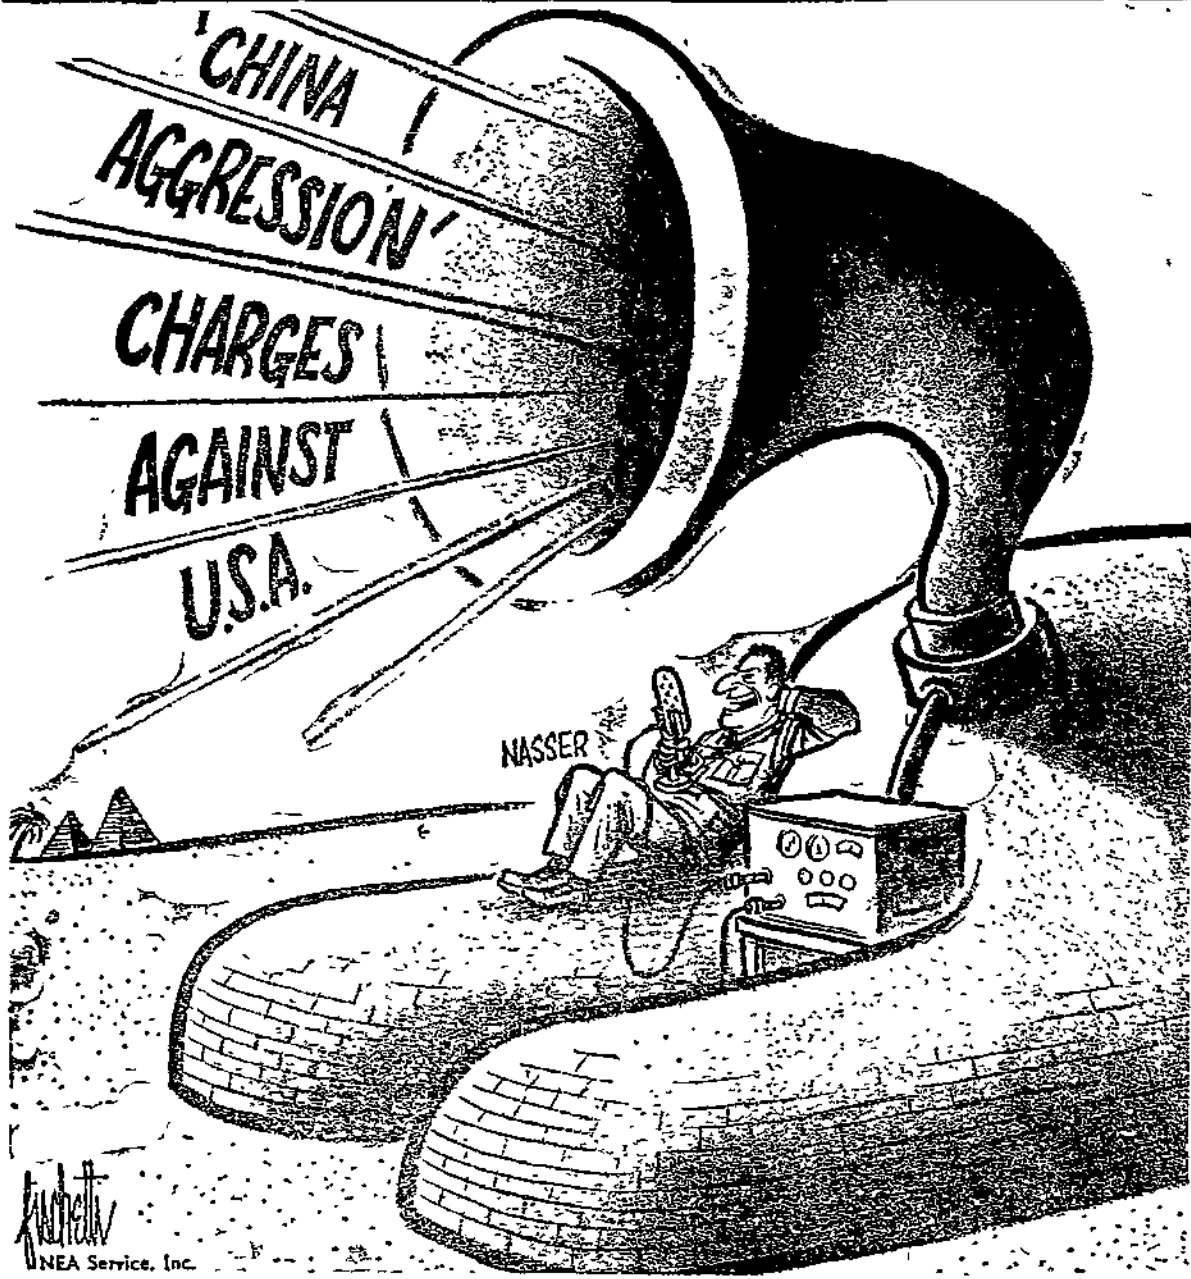

That seems to say that by themselves the islands are not worth defending and are not necessary for Formosa's defense. That raises a nice question all by itself.

Why then did the United States ever let Chiang put so many troops there, creating a situation which might require American intervention and war not only with Red China but perhaps even with the Soviet Union?

The United States took that chance by using units of the 7th Fleet to convoy supplies, particularly ammunition, to Chiang's bombarded forces on Quemoy. Dulles said what is involved is the whole position of the "free world in the western Pacific." He explained that: "If you fall back from advanced positions and indicate to an aggressor that you have no will to stand, then your position becomes weaker, your allies lose confidence."

But if Chiang hadn't sent his troops to the islands, the Reds could have taken them. Thus Chiang's sending his troops to Quemoy set in motion a whole series of events, actual and possible, which created this situation:

Here and There

The city of Niagara Falls with the aid and direction of local safety people, will hunt hazards in homes, set up exhibits, stage fire prevention demonstrations, and carry out other "safer home" activities. Having already trained their safety sights on the traffic and outdoor accident problem, the Boy Scouts of America are now in the third phase of their 1958 National Safety Good Turn—a lifesaving project undertaken at the request of President Eisenhower. Plans already under way include medicine chest, attic, basement, garage, and yard cleanup campaigns. Typical of the projects to be carried out locally is the home hazard hunt conducted by Troop 13, of North Warren. Scouts will search for and eliminate such home hazards as poorly lit stairways, broken steps, frayed electrical cords, and unmarked, improperly stored poisons. High light of the three-month home safety crusade will be the delivery of a Federal Civil Defense booklet, the "Handbook for Emergencies," on October 11, to every home in Warren County and Ludlow. The handbook was designed as a guide to help families everywhere prepare for all types of disasters—natural and man-made. Outlined in the 24-page booklet are five steps to family safety from fire, flood, storm, and enemy attack.

Just by way of a reminder that Thanksgiving is only eleven weeks off, a dispatch from Harrisburg says that turkeys for the holiday may be a little more difficult to find this year. The Pennsylvania crop is down 23 per cent and the national figure has dropped by 4 per cent, the State Department of Agriculture said today. The Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service advised that production of heavy breeds—heavy whites and bronzes—paced the drop at 23 per cent, and light breeds—such as Beltsville small whites, Jersey Buffs, and Royal Palms—declined 22 per cent. Pennsylvania now ranks fifteenth in the nation in the number of turkeys raised on farms. The State ranked twelfth in the nation in 1957. California, Minnesota and Iowa are the leading turkey producing states. Pennsylvania is the leading producing area in the nine North Atlantic Region States. Prices received by farmers for turkeys from March through July averaged 9 per cent above the same months in 1957 while feed prices averaged 11 per cent higher.

NEW YORK (AP) —Some young uncaught horse thief in the office recently pasted a motto on my typewriter.

It says: "God has a place for the older person whose heart has remained sweet and strong."

I had to laugh.

The young fellow who pasted this message was gently twitting me about my advanced age. The newspaper game has always been regarded as a young man's game—just as war is. Anyone over 45 in it gradually assumes the status of a dinosaur, and is often asked questions such as, "What was life really like in the old days?"

This is always a bit unnerving to one who—let's face it—can summon up a clearer mental picture of Clara Bow than of Brigitte Bardot.

At 40, I would have bitterly resented being teasingly classified as an "older person." But after 45 one accepts it, not as a taunt, but an accolade.

The envy of youth one has at 40 gives way to one of restrained pity. One feels sorry for the very, very young. After all, what have they really done to deserve all the turbulent woes that go with lack of age?

One gets a trifle smug after 45. One has solved so many of life's more pressing problems.

At 25 you wonder what is happening to your hair. After 45, you know what happened to it. It went.

At 25, if you have a beautiful wife, you are always afraid some handsomer fellow will steal her away. After 45, you know you couldn't even pay anybody to kid-

Voting Rights Conflict Now Goes to Court Battleground

BY FREDER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The first Negro voting rights suit filed in U.S. District Court at Columbus, Ga., under the Civil Rights Act of 1957 is historic.

It is also, in all probability, the forerunner of a number of such cases and long litigation to establish equal voting rights for all U.S. citizens, regardless of race or color.

The Georgia case was carefully selected by the Department of Justice and its filing carefully timed.

FOUR OF THE FIVE Dawson, Ga., Negroes whom the Justice Department complaint alleges were denied the right to register on the grounds of inability to read correctly and intelligibly are school teachers and college graduates. One holds a master's degree from New York University.

The action asks for an injunction requiring the registrars of Terrell County to end discriminatory practices.

This case will be tried without a jury before one of the two judges assigned to the Middle District of Georgia. Which of the judges will hear the case has not been determined.

If the injunction is granted, but if there is later noncompliance and a contempt of court case develops, this also may be heard by a judge without jury trial.

If, however, the contempt penalty exceeds $300 or 45 days imprisonment, the defendant may demand a jury trial.

These are the provisions of the famous jury-trial amendment which southern Senators tacked onto the bill before its final passage Aug. 29, 1957.

THE STATEMENTS OF PRINCIPALS in the debate are now being recalled as prophesies.

Senator Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) declared Aug. 13, 1957: "I close by saying to my Democratic friends that if you think you have taken the civil rights issue out of the 1958 and 1960 campaigns by the passage of the so-called compromise civil rights bill, you have a rude awakening ahead of you. . . . The minority groups know when they are being fooled. They know they are being fooled by the Senate civil rights bill, and by the Democratic leadership which tries to present it as something it is not."

Senator Richard Russell (D-Ga.) leader of the southern opposition, predicted that it would be administered by a politically minded attorney general (then Herbert Brownell Jr.) who would be constantly pressed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon to apply its powers to the southern states "at such places and in such times and manner as the NAACP, of which the vice president is the most distinguished member, may demand."

The complaint now filed by Assistant Attorney General White and District Attorney Frank O. Evans alleges that white applicants for registration were given hearings and registered on March 24. When literacy tests were administered to Negro applicants thereafter, different and more stringent standards were applied to them than were applied to white applicants.

NEW YORK (AP) — Most cheering of all of today's soothsayers are those who are predicting easier living ahead.

This comes, oddly enough, at the same time so many are talking up industrial recovery and increased consumer spending.

Many persons were perplexed that the cost of living kept rising during the recession when plants were standing idle, production and sales were falling and surpluses, not shortages, were the big problem.

Now with industry all set for a hoped-for rise in activity, the talk is that industrial prices may rise very little if at all, and that in other lines — chiefly foods — the chances are good for better days for the family pocketbook.

Since food stands high on every one's budget, the report of bumper crops is good news indeed. It means that foodstuffs should ease rather than rise — and, importantly, that an abundance of foodstuffs foretells a future increase in the number of meat animals, and an easing of prices in that vital part of the cost of living.

Also, government price supports for some crops are being lowered, along with restrictions on production — a boon to city dwellers at least.

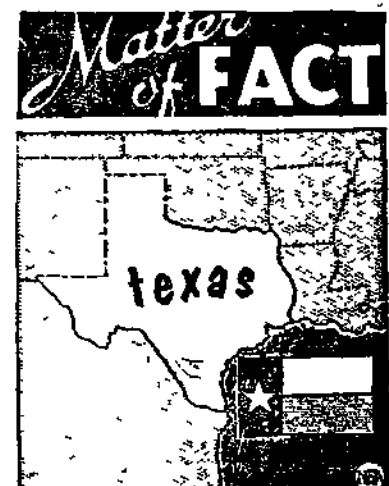

There are even signs that the long rise in the cost of services may be slowing down — in most fields, that is, except transportation.

The case for hope that a pickup in industrial activity and the accompanying rise in personal incomes may not kick off much of a rise in industrial materials or even in manufacturing end products is based on two beliefs.

1. That the recovery will be moderate and slow-paced.

2. That the big surpluses still overhanging the market will have to be worked off first and that the excess production capacity in most industries will keep competition keen for some time to come.

It will be a struggle in most

After the Battle of San Jacinto, April 21, 1836, the independence of Texas from Mexico was established. For the next 10 years Texas was an independent republic with Sam Houston, the hero of San Jacinto, as president. The Republic's government was patterned after that of the United States. The Texas congress adopted a red, white and blue flag bearing a single star, from which Texas derives its "Lone Star State" nickname.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom. —I Kings 10:8.

The most manifest sign of wisdom is a continual cheerfulness; her state is like that of things in the regions above the moon, always clear and serene.—Michael Montaigne.

OUTWARD TO THE STARS (17)—Building the Space Station

(1) Enormous difficulties must be overcome before the building of a permanent manned space station is feasible. But its construction will be easy in one respect, if only in one: The absence of gravity (actually, Earth's gravity canceled by centrifugal force in orbit) will enable men to maneuver huge girders and plates about like feathers.

On the other hand, the human problem alone will be tremendous. Each worker's spacesuit must be a self-contained "world." The need for eating and sleeping quarters will limit the number of men able to work at one time. Sudden movements from shadow into unfiltered sunlight will be a real danger to a worker's eyes. Spacesuit failure will mean death. Other factors, some as yet unknown, may cut actual working time to a few hours.

(2) A strange-looking craft is this cargo ferry or space taxi. Platforms like this will scurry about in orbit, gathering materials and supplies from cargo rockets.

(3) Recent discovery, by means of the tiny Vanguard I satellite, of a band of hitherto unsuspected intense radiation some 600 miles above the Earth may seriously hinder man's dream of space travel. Some sort of protective "suit" such as this may be required for any prolonged stay in space.

A thick, lead-lined cylinder, it is a tiny spacesuit in its own right. Explorer IV now in orbit is probing the nature and extent of this strange band of radiation.

(4) Months will be required to construct the shell of the space station. Then more months to finish the interior, install instruments and equipment. Here, the completed station is ready to be provisioned. Zero gravity condition at the hub facilitates the loading of supplies. In the central ball, spacesuits can be removed. Tubes lead to the main sections of the station in the rim.

The Mature Parent

Accept Him for Himself
And Not for What He Can Do

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

At the commuters' bar where Harry K. stops in for a double martini before catching the 6:10 home, it always ends with his drinking three or four.

Let someone mention a business trip east—and he'll say too heartily, "If you drop in at the Stork, just tell Billingsley you know me."

Before he finally leaves his too-lavish tip on the bar, everyone within hearing distance has learned about the "little 15-room shack that set me back $45,000"; about what his friend Senator So-and-So privately thinks of the school integration law; how you can't go wrong with one of the cigars he's got some fellows in Havana to make up especially for him.

Mr. K. doesn't enjoy bragging like this. He's deeply aware of the look of appraising contempt it always brings into people's eyes. He knows that they're seeing past the big talk to the shrinking self behind. But he can't help bragging about all the important things he can do any more than he can restrict himself to one double martini.

He's one of the reasons why child training books say over and over, "Accept your child for what he is, not for what he can do." Their plea is meaningless until we begin to connect it up with tormented people like Harry K.

Even then it's not easy to act on it. But so fruitful is even an occasional acceptance of a child for himself instead of for the important things he can do that we don't have to worry if we fail at it a lot of the time.

Accepting a child for what he is, not for what he can do is to be able to mean and say things like these: "Will you give me your permission to show Grandma your final report card?"... "The fact that you like this new friend so much is all I need to know about him."... "I don't want you to tell me the truth unless you want to give it to me."

If just once in a while we accept a child for what he is, not for his ability to produce promotions, desirable friends, moral triumph and other successes, he will not have to use his successes as a substitute for self-respect as poor Harry K. is doomed to do. Just once in a while, that's all.

MRS. WILLIAM ANTHONY HOH

Diane Margo Eggleston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Eggleston, Youngsville RD 1, became the bride of William Anthony Hoh, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Hoh, Coudersport, in a single ring ceremony performed at 12:00 noon, August 30 in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church.

Father Alfred M. Bauer officiated before an altar banked on each side with palms and decorated with white gladioli. Soloist was Richard Hoh, New York City, brother of the bridegroom, who sang "Ave Maria", "Pans Angelicus" and "Veni Jesu Amor Me", accompanied by Mrs. Donald Edinger at the organ.

Escorted by her father, the bride appeared in a waltz length gown of white organza fashioned with puffed sleeves, sabrina neckline, and an embroidered organza pattern on bodice and skirt. She carried a white orchid covering a white mother-of-pearl prayer book.

Maid of honor was Joan Saglimbene in a blue lace sheath, with blue taffeta overskirt, and a blue velvet shell cap with pearl trim. She carried a colonial bouquet of red roses. Bridesmaids, in dresses identical to the maid of honor's, were Linda Eggleston, the bride's sister, and Carol Saglimbene, carrying colonial bouquets of pink roses.

Best man was Jerome Jerge, Erie. Ushers were John Eggleston, brother of the bride, and Michael Connolly, Port Allegany, nephew of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother selected blue nylon, with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Joseph Connolly of Port Allegany, wore gray with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A reception for approximately 150 guests followed at Glade Township Fire Hall, where the bride's table was decorated with a tiered cake, topped with a nosegay and banked with greens. Out of town guests were present from Erie, Port Allegany, Smethport, New York City, Johnsonburg and St. Marys.

For a wedding trip to Canada, the bride chose a yellow cord suit and white accessories. The newlyweds will make their new home at 209 Jackson avenue, Warren.

The bride, 1954 WHS graduate, attended St. Bonaventure College in Olean, N. Y., and is employed in the traffic department of Sylvania. The bridegroom graduated from Strong Vincent High School; also Gannon College in 1957. He is employed in the accounting department of Sylvania.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride included a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Joseph Borgia, Erie; Jeannine Turner and Mrs. Ronald Harrison; Carol and Joan Saglimbene.

The Yale cheer is partly taken from the "Frogs" of Aristophanes, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Family Cooperation Decides Success of Working Wives

Not long ago I asked working wives who are convinced that their jobs haven't made them poorer wives, mothers and housekeepers to stand up and be counted.

They stood up, all right—straight and tall and proud, judging from their letters—to let it be known that a woman can hold down a job and not in any way neglect her children, her husband or her home.

Some said that their working had made it possible for the family to buy a home of their own. Some said it was that extra pay check in the family that made it possible for the children to have a college education. Some said the feeling of accomplishment they got from holding down a job and earning a pay check had given them such a lift they knew they were more stimulating companions to their husbands.

But the interesting thing about their letters was that they all said that what made the career-housewife combination work was family cooperation.

In every single "success" letter, there was the boast that "My husband appreciates my helping out" or, "We talked it over with the children before I took a job and they have been wonderful about doing their share of the work around the house," or, "We all share in the household chores."

So, perhaps, the answer to whether or not a wife and mother can successfully hold down an outside job depends on her ability to convince her husband and children that she is going to work for the good of the family and that in return she needs her family's cooperation.

I wish I could share these letters with you for they are remarkable success stories. They show a new kind of pioneer spirit—with families pulling together just as they did in the early days of our country, when every member of the family was expected to pitch in and do whatever had to be done.

DEFENDERS BID AND PLAY BADLY

By OSWALD JACOBY

Today's hand was sent me by Robert Willman of New York and shows how a bad double, plus a bad play, enabled South to make an unsound grand slam.

If South had bothered to bid five no-trump to check for kings he would probably have contented himself with a small slam, but South leaped right to seven after North showed two aces.

East knew all about lead directing doubles and decided that he wanted a club opening. He could not have been more mistaken. A heart opening would actually beat six and my guess is that West would have opened a trump if left to his own devices.

West dutifully opened the eight of clubs and declarer had no hesitation about playing dummy's ace. He continued with the queen and East compounded his felony by going right up with the king. South trumped low, entered dummy with trump ten, ruffed a club high. Now he drew trumps and was able to get rid of his losing heart and losing diamond on dummy's good clubs.

If East had played a low club at trick two South would have gone down, bad double and all. He could discard one loser then, but would have to ruff two more clubs with high trumps in order to establish a discard for his other losing card. This would make West's nine of trumps a sure winner.

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN JACK SMITH

First Lutheran church was the scene of a pretty wedding at 2:30 p. m. September 6, when Anita Jean Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Miller of Starbuck, became the bride of Allen Jack Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith, 228 Essex street, Corry.

The Rev. Frederick B. Haer officiated before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli, vases of white glads, asters and mums, and lighted tapers in candelabra. Mrs. Glenn Engstrom was at the organ and soloist was a former classmate of the bride, Mrs. Carol Shay, Jamestown. Acolytes were David Miller, brother of the bride, and Michael Rice.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected nylon tulle over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice, short sleeves and scoop neckline with sequin and lace applique, the bouffant skirt touched with lace detail. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of pearls and rhinestones, her single strand of pearls and matching earrings were the bridegroom's gift, and her flowers were a cascade of white shasta daisies, with shower of pom poms and ivy falling from a center corsage.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Evelyn Owen of East Aurora, N. Y., wore light orchid taffeta, a banderian headpiece, matching shoes and mits, and carried a cascade of light pink and yellow daisy mums and ivy. Wearing the same shade, with cummerbund and trapeze panels of deep orchid, bridesmaids were Mrs. Marilyn Miller, Youngsville, and Bonnie Hillard, Starbuck. Their flowers were yellow daisy mums cascades. Nieces of the principals, flower girls were Grace Miller, Youngsville, and Lynn Carutis, Sherman, N. Y., in white nylon over orchid, with matching crowns, and baskets filled with delphinium and rose petals.

Others in the bridal party were Donald Smith, Jamestown, who was his brother's best man; ushers, James Miller of Youngsville, brother of the bride; Edward Carutis, Sherman; Arthur Anderson, and another brother of the bridegroom, Richard Smith of Corry.

Wearing navy accents and yellow mum corsages, Mrs. Miller selected pink lace over taffeta; Mrs. Smith chose navy blue. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. James H. Miller of Starbuck, wore pink daisy pom poms with aqua; Mr. Miller was remembered with a white carnation.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller, uncle and aunt of the bride, were master and mistress of ceremonies for the reception which followed at White Way Social Center, where floral decorations were done by Mrs. Louis Hendrickson. The four-tier cake, with bridal figures and bells, was served by Mrs. Richard Smith, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Carlson; at the punch bowl was the bridegroom's sister, Juanita Smith; at the coffee service, Mrs. William Sabar, cousin of the bride. Other aides were sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Edward Carutis, in charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Charles Hanover; his sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald Smith; and the bride's cousin, Mrs. Daniel Cole.

Guests included relatives and friends from Lockport, East Aurora, Gerry, Jamestown, Frewsburg, and Sherman, N. Y.; Fort Pierce, Fla.; Russell, North Warren, Kane, Ludlow, Corry, Youngsville, Irvine and Chicora. Returning September 20 from a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the newlyweds will live at 312 Crossman street, Jamestown. For travel, the bride chose a two-piece dress of fall plaid, black accessories, and the corsage from her bouquet. # Negro Attorney Plans Appeal for Condemned Man

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A Negro attorney said today he has been hired to try to save Jimmy Wilson from the electric chair. He hunted at further court action.

Fred Gray of Montgomery declined to say what course he might pursue. He said "nothing official" can be done until the Alabama Supreme Court rules on Wilson's request for a rehearing.

Wilson, 55, Negro handyman and ex-convict, was sentenced to death for a $1.95 robbery in which an elderly white widow said he choked her, tried to rape her and threatened her life.

The Supreme Court upheld the death sentence last June 12, but the condemned man asked a rehearing. That petition is pending. Wilson's electrocution scheduled for Sept. 5, has been put off indefinitely until the court rules.

At his trial and on the automatic appeal to the state's highest court, Wilson was represented by two court-appointed white attorneys.

Gray, who has been active in the fight against segregation in Montgomery said two brothers of Wilson hired him to represent the condemned Negro.

Wilson, who had served two previous terms for grand larceny, was convicted of robbing Mrs. Estelle Barker at her home in Marion July 27, 1957.

The Negro's death sentence has attracted international attention, including a recent telegram to

Forester Reports 250,000 Visited Chapman Park

More than 250,000 persons visited Chapman Dam State Park this summer according to District Forester Charles Merroth who made a report last evening to the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors. This amazing attendance, double the number who used the park in 1957, included 102,000 swimmers, 50,000 picnickers, 3,900 fishers, 2,500 boaters, and 90,000 transients (those who drove in and out of the park without stopping).

Mr. Merroth said that 249,000 visitors used the Park in the daytime and there were 2,000 overnight campers. He estimated 44,000 cars were accommodated during the three month season.

Recreation was one of the main items for discussion by the Chamber Directors who also heard a report from John Franson, Supervisor of the Allegheny National Forest who spoke of the potential use of the Kinzua Dam area for recreation. He estimated there would be at least 1,000,000 visitors to the Dam each year for the first three years with a steady increase every year thereafter. Mr. Franson is working closely with the Corps of Army Engineers and the State Highway Department in planning the recreational facilities at the Dam site.

James Blomquist, Chamber Tourist Attraction committee chairman, told the Board that permanent metal road markers are being made for the two Scenic Trails and will be erected in time for the fall foliage season. One of these trails is called the Heart's Content Route and the other is the Kinzua tour.

Other committee reports made last evening included Retail Division, Jake Levinson, Recreation, Gail Cobb, Manufacturers, Merle Kremer, Industrial Development, Donald E. Conaway, Internal Affairs, W. R. Walker.

Paul Yagge's committee reported that the new edition of the Accommodations Directory for Hunters and Fishermen would be off the press next week with 20,000 copies for distribution. # Letters to Editor

To the Editor of Warren Times-Mirror:

Cobham Park Area Residence

We would like to take this opportunity to state our side of the story concerning the article in last Wednesday's issue of the Warren Times on "Defiant Owners Prevent By-Pass" on Cobham Park road, and also explain about the unreasonable request for making a "park" area of land used for the by-pass.

To begin with, we voluntarily offered our land for a by-pass, never having been approached for its use. However, we did ask for some fill to be used in holes that had been washed out by a previous flash-flood. This fill to be taken from our own property as they channeled for the new creek bed. We also asked for the leveling off of the road after its use was completed. We did not ask the township or any one else for a "park."

As for "defiant land-owners," there has been no defiance on our part at any time, and we are more than willing to let our property be used as a by-pass for a temporary bridge. This fill and leveling off of the road-bed would be of minor cost, if any.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Merritt

Mills in the upper Ohio River district are scheduled to operate at 69.5 per cent of capacity, a drop of 12 points from the previous week.

Twelve Servicemen Killed at Anchorage

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Twelve servicemen were killed Tuesday when an Air Force C47 transport plane carrying 19 persons, faltered at 800 feet on takeoff, dropped to the ground and burned.

The accident happened at Elmendorf Air Force Base, a Military Air Transport Service terminal. The twin-engine craft plunged to earth only 100 feet off Elmendorf's main runway.

Eyewitnesses said the C47, on a routine courier flight to isolated posts in the huge northern territory, was making what appeared to be a normal take-off.

At 800 feet, however, the big craft apparently stalled, veered off to the right and then crashed.

Clarendon Boro Council Guests at Dinner-Meeting

Clarendon Borough Council members were guests at a dinner-meeting of Clarendon Volunteer Fire Department in the borough building Tuesday evening in acknowledgment of their "cooperation and assistance" the past year.

Burgess Ben Hofer, Council President John Hickey and councilmen Lawrence Benson, Wayne Kinch, Joe Doroties, and Joe Montore attended. The meal was served by a CVFD committee.

Business session which followed showed slow progress being made in the current campaign. It was noted that only 20 per cent of residents in Clarendon Boro and Mead township have responded to the campaign. New emergency truck is nearly completed with equipment.

Open house at the department has been set for Fire Prevention Week, October 5-11. Demonstrations will be given to Clarendon area residents. A special invitation will be extended pupils to attend with their parents to see the workings of a fire department and its modernized equipment.

A special first-aid class will be held for department members later in the fall. Chief Leonard Fabinski reported that a file cabinet had been purchased in the memory of Gilbert Nelson.

A motion was made and carried to purchase new all-weather tires for the emergency truck. A radio-mobile unit was voted for purchase for the same vehicle. A crew erected new speed limit signs in the borough for the council. Seven men will attend WCAVEA meeting in Starbrick Thursday, Sept. 18.

Bob Bullock, Jr., Jack Williams and Bob Jones were appointed as new drivers for engine No. 2.

President Clayton Simpson presided, Rev. Hubert Jicha gave the invocation.

Spot Bandage Hides Small Facial Blemish

This girl uses a tiny spot bandage in flesh color to conceal a small blemish on her face. These new bandages come in many sizes, are just right for blending with the skin tone.

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

When an otherwise flawless skin pops a blemish on the night of a big dinner date, it's enough to make a girl want to stay home. But since this sort of thing happens often, it's best not to give in to it. The first thing to do is to get busy drying it up. And a remedy that your mother used, which is still excellent, is one sold at any pharmacy: spirits of camphor. This takes care of a pimple, bump or blemish in a matter of hours. Meanwhile, don't touch the spot or squeeze it. If you feel that the spot must be covered, you'll be cheered to know that there are some new spot bandages for tiny blemishes which are flesh-colored. They have a sheer plastic backing and come in patches and strips, too. Using one of these tiny spot bandages to mask a blemish, you can go through an evening feeling and looking attractive.

vigilance

Final victory over cancer will come from the research laboratory. But there are victories today. Many cancers can be cured when detected early and treated promptly. Vigilance is the key to this victory. There are seven signals which might mean cancer. Vigilance in heeding them could mean victory over cancer for you.

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge;
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere;
3. A sore that does not heal;
4. Change in bowel or bladder habits;
5. Hoarseness or cough;
6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing;
7. Change in a wart or mole.

If your signal lasts longer than two weeks, go to your doctor to learn if it means cancer.

Study Group Reports On Peaceful Uses of Atom

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

GENEVA (AP)—Most people are afraid and emotionally upset over even peaceful uses of atomic energy, a study group of the World Health Organization declared today.

Explaining the fear, WHO said radiation is invisible, unheard, unsmelt, untasted and unfelt, apparently infinitely powerful, yet springs from an almost infinitely small source.

This anxiety has people around the world suffering varying degrees of emotional or mental illness, said the study which was issued during the atoms-for-peace conference.

The study group was headed by

WE ONLY LOOK LIKE FISH—Commuters who use the ferry line from Weehawken, N.J., to New York City don fish masks to protest scheduled discontinuation of the service next week. Theme is: "Fish can swim the river, but we can't."

Prof. Hans Hoff, Vienna psychiatrist.

The best hope for improved mental health in the atomic age lies in training children, at home and school, to live realistically in a world of rapid change, uncertainties and uncertainties. This can be done to make them more self-reliant and emotionally mature. There is little hope of changing the attitudes of most of today's adults.

There is "a growing mistrust of scientists as well as politicians." Scientists are volunteering, or being forced by politicians, to make judgments or recommend policies instead of sticking to just reporting facts, it is explained.

The ensuing public debates and disagreements among scientists add to public confusion and worry, and destroys faith in the scientists as an unerring source of facts, it said.

Politicians, lacking scientific training, have to call on scientists for advice; some resent this and see a threat to their own power from the scientists, others "use" the scientist, the study said.

Fear that radiation will be a time-bomb dooming future generations is "a deeper and more subtle fear than that of the unleashing of energy that might destroy the universe."

"There might be something peculiarly horrible in the idea, for example, of the cow, the giver of milk to children, as being a concentrating agent of radiation."

Many people don't want to read about atomic energy "because they are afraid of becoming afraid. They retreat into the dark caves of their own emotions," Ritchie Calder, British science writer serving on the study group, told a news conference.

Military Funeral For Alcoholic Who Stabbed Himself

ST LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—An alcoholic who stabbed himself to death last week was given full military honors at his burial Monday on orders of President Eisenhower.

The President acted promptly upon receiving a telegram Sunday from the wife of I. W. Jeffery, 36, who fought with the Marines at Guadalcanal. Later Jeffery became a successful salesman.

"My husband died an alcoholic, a suicide," Mrs. Jeffery told the President. "We begged for help for him, but St. Louis has no facilities to help alcoholics."

"He was so very proud of the Marine Corps. All I'm asking is a full military funeral. We had the kind of life you and Mrs. Eisenhower have before alcohol won."

A Marine detachment was provided after Marine headquarters in Washington received a call from the White House.

At the burial at National Cemetery in nearby Jefferson Barracks, Mrs. Jeffery was presented a flag on behalf of the president of the United States.

Marlow Looks At the News

(From Page Four)

While Quemoy and the Matsus were not worth defending themselves—of this is a proper interpretation of what Dulles was saying—the United States couldn't yield the islands to the Reds under threat of force.

But so long as Chiang holds those islands, it seems sure there will be a repetition of this crisis which was a repetition—a replica, Dulles called it—of a similar crisis three years ago.

Yet, as time passes and Red Chinese strength grows in weapons and planes, this country may become increasingly unwilling to risk war to defend the small islands.

What's the answer? Dulles indicated concessions might be made to the Reds if they stopped talking about using force to take the islands. What concessions? Maybe this country will persuade Chiang to pull back his troops after a proper interval and let the Reds have Quemoy and the Matsus.

Chiang could hardly refuse if the United States told him that's what it wanted. He's utterly dependent on the United States for his existence.

Pittsburgh Mayor's Son Is Minus His Driver's License

HARRISBURG (AP)—The 19-year-old son of Pittsburgh's Mayor David L. Lawrence was voluntarily minus his driver's license today as a result of a July 27 speeding charge.

"I should not avoid proper punishment on the point of a technicality," said Gerald Lawrence in a letter to A. Allen Sulcove, acting secretary of revenue, Tuesday.

The son of the Democratic candidate for governor added: "I am perfectly willing to take my medicine."

The charge against young Lawrence was dropped after it was found the speedometer on the state police car driven by the trooper who stopped him had been overdriven for the periodic check required by law.

The youth had been stopped south of Porterville, Butler County, on Route 19.

Col. E. J. Henry, state police commissioner, said Tuesday he had severely reprimanded Trooper Charles E. Pierce and two other unidentified men he said were responsible for the speedometer not being checked within the proper period of time.

"This is the first time it has happened since I took command," Henry said. "We are taking steps to see that it doesn't happen again."

O. D. Shipley, director of the Bureau of Highway Safety, said young Lawrence's license would be held 15 days, the normal period for an initial offense.

The youth also enclosed a $15 check to pay the fine and costs for a speeding conviction.

The charges, brought before Justice of the Peace John G. Stickle of Portersville, were dropped Aug. 12.

New Salvation Army Building Moves Closer

Another step toward a new Salvation Army building was taken in court this morning when Attorney David Swanson requested Judge Alexander C. Flick to set a date when a hearing would be held for release of the trust money.

The judge picked 2 p. m. Wednesday, Sept. 24.

In a petition presented to the court, Attorney Swanson asked his honor to issue an order allowing the Warren Salvation Army unit to build a structure adjacent to the rear of its present building but facing on Market street.

The building would include facilities for agricultural education classes and also serve as a "refuge" for children as stipulated in the wills of Henry and Ann Cobham which were finally probated in 1912.

Amount of money in the trust fund is now estimated at $110,000, according to the petition. The matter has been in the courts since 1950 as Salvation Army officials have attempted to fulfill all requirements of the Cobham bequest.

This latest legal step could possibly conclude the matter and bring full release of the money for Salvation Army use.

With the Candidates

McGONIGLE
BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Arthur T. McGonigle today promised to give Warren equal consideration with men in filling executive positions if he is elected governor.

The Republican candidate, in a speech prepared for the Southwestern Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women's conference here, said women "have not received adequate consideration in the filling of executive positions as well as for many other positions in our state government which they are qualified to fill."

"As governor, I will see that there is complete integration of men and women in managing our state's affairs. We will end discrimination by recognizing the talents and skills of Pennsylvania women for careers in government. Much progress has been made since women won their right to vote, but we still are plagued by old fashioned ideas about women in government."

BOWERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Clarence P. Bowers, defeated for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senate in the May primary, came out flatly today for the statewide Democratic ticket at the Nov. 4 election.

"For the past two months," the Reading industrialist said in a statement, "I have listened carefully and weighed deliberately all aspects of the rival campaigns. Now I have made my decision. I shall support the Democratic party and its statewide ticket."

Fair Weather Across State Aid to Harvests

HARRISBURG (AP)—Generally fair weather across the state helped harvests during the week ended Sept. 8, the State Agriculture Department reported.

In its weekly summary, issued Tuesday, the department said the season's first light frost was reported in some areas with a low of 35 recorded in Emporium Sept. 3.

Good weather in southern counties helped harvest activities, the department said, and the planting of winter cereal crops made progress.

High yields of well natured corn are predicted for southern counties, the report added, but cool, wet weather has slowed the corn in the north. Cool weather slowing of peach ripening also was noted.

Liz Taylor and Eddie Fisher Are Linked in Rumor

NEW YORK (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor today characterized as "garbage" reports that she was romantically interested in singer Eddie Fisher with whom she has been night clubbing.

Miss Taylor and Fisher made separate departures early Monday morning from an East Side night club, apparently to quiet gossip arising from their being seen together.

She was asked today about published stories that hinted Fisher would break up with his wife and Reynolds, because of her.

"I'm not interested in that kind of garbage," Miss Taylor said sharply.

Fisher, Miss Taylor and two friends spent an hour at the club, sipping champagne and chatting. Informants said photographers were waiting, Miss Taylor left first, followed by actress Eva Marie Saint and her escort, Rick Ingorsoll.

Fisher came out alone shortly thereafter and joined the others in a waiting car.

Cafe society, has noted Fisher and Miss Taylor dining and dancing together frequently.

Miss Reynolds and Fisher were close friends of showman Mike Todd, Miss Taylor's husband who was killed in a plane crash. The two families have been friends for years.

Fisher flew out of town Monday afternoon, presumably for the West Coast.

Miss Taylor left today on a plane for a flight to Los Angeles. In Hollywood, Miss Reynolds, wearing white pajamas and a negligee, emerged from her home and picked up newspapers from the driveway.

Waiting reporters asked her what she thought of the speculation about the activities of her husband and Miss Taylor.

"I never heard of such a thing," she said indignantly, and went back into the house.

A servant in the home, answering a telephoned inquiry, said Fisher was expected to arrive from New York during the day.

Sewickley Man Held in Chicago for Killing

CHICAGO (AP)—Police are holding a Sewickley, Pa., man whom they said reported he had killed his wife Aug. 23 after a drunken fight.

Officers said Chester Mauchline, 47, walked into the police station Tuesday night and reported he had killed his wife, Elizabeth, 43, in Sewickley.

Police said he approached the desk sergeant, displayed a newspaper clipping describing the discovery of his wife's body and said, "I'm the man wanted for this."

Police quoted him saying he decided to give up because he was "tired of running away."

Captain Banfe Files His Plane Into Rome

ROME (AP)—Capt. Charles F. Banfe Jr., whose New York-to-Rome nonstop flight ended Monday in a Corsican vineyard, flew into Rome today in his single-engine plane.

Banfe, an airline pilot from Palo Alto, Calif., said he still planned to complete his solo flight around the world.

Fuel line trouble forced him to make an emergency landing in the vineyard.

(From Page One)

4 Rep. Coya Knutson (D-Minn), the lady legislator who defied her husband's demand that she give up politics and come home, was locked in a tight struggle with Marvin Evenson in Minnesota's 9th Dist.

Tuesday's contests involving 8 Senate seats, 59 House berths and 7 governorships completed the 1958 primary elections except for Georgia and Rhode Island.

Georgia comes up today, holding a Democratic primary for governor and 10 House seats. Rhode Island has a split deal primary—the Democrats holding theirs next Wednesday and the Republicans Sept. 25.

A rundown of other major primary contests Tuesday:

Vermont — Rep. Winston L. Prouty won a decisive victory over former Gov. Lee Emerson in their race for the Republican nomination for the Senate seat being vacated by Sen. Ralph E. Flanders. Prouty had the backing of Flanders.

Massachusetts — Sen. John F. Kennedy and Gov. Foster Furcolo won Democratic renomination without contest. Republicans tapped Statehouse Speaker Charles Gibbons to be substitute candidate for governor in place of Atty. Gen. George Fingold, who died 10 days ago.

New Hampshire — Wesley Powell finished ahead in a five-man race for the GOP gubernatorial nomination, but a recount appears a certainty in view of Powell's hair-splitting 537-vote margin over former Gov. Hugh Gregg. The other three candidates lagged far behind. On the Democratic side, Bernard Boutin outdistanced John Shaw in the governor's primary.

Colorado — Gov. Steve McNichols won Democratic renomination without opposition and State Rep. Palmer Burch had clear sailing in gaining the GOP assignment to oppose McNichols in November.

Washington — Sen. Henry M. Jackson won a hands-down triumph over Mrs. Alice F. Bryant in the Democratic primary. William B. Bantz had no foes in his bid for the Republican senatorial nod.

acre reservation prompted the Indians to take action. The dam has been discussed since the floods of 1936 and was approved in 1941. However, only in the last two years has government money actually been made available to begin construction.

The Indians do not dispute the right of the government to take the land by eminent domain for public improvements. But, they say, they want every possible flood control alternative to the dam fully explored.

Their proposal that flood waters of the Allegheny River be diverted into Lake Erie was viewed by Army engineers as unfeasible. But on July 29, Maj. Gen. E. C. Itschner, chief of Army engineers, said he would consider engineering data to be presented to him in support of the water diversion scheme.

The data now are being worked out by Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, former TWA consultant, who is an engineer consultant for the Senecas.

delay trial until after the Nov. 4 general election.

Bowers contended in his petition Tuesday that this action would "amount to a suppression of facts which should be available to the electors at the time of the general election."

McBride said trial before the election would "increase the political bitterness" the case already has aroused. He said justice would not be served best by holding the trial before the election.

Bowers was dismissed from the board after he refused a transfer by Leader to the Unemployment Compensation Board of Review, partially operated with federal funds.

Because of the federal connection, Bowers would have been prohibited from any political activity.

MORE RAIN

Rain last night and again this morning keeps the record in order for September which has recorded only one day out of 10 during which there has been no measurable precipitation. The warmer temperatures of last night were dissipated by the rain. Forecast: more of the same.

FOURTH LAMB POOL

A fourth lamb pool will be held at Union City stockyards Saturday, Russell F. Mollenauer, Crawford County agricultural extension agent, has announced. Reservations should be made at once at the extension office in the courthouse. Mollenauer points out. Prices at earlier pools have been very encouraging, he added.

ANOTHER CAMP JOB

Deputy Sheriff Don Allen reported this morning that a .22 rifle and a .12 gauge shotgun had been stolen within the last few days from the Evelyn Marsh school camp on Lenhart Road in Pleasant Township. Entry was gained to the Erie man's camp by smashing a 24x24 inch side window. Though the premises were ransacked, nothing else of value was taken.

CASES CONTINUED

Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr. in court this morning set back until Oct. 8 the date when an appeal for a new trial would be heard in the case of Isobel Olson versus Warren Borough. Mrs. Olson was awarded approximately $10,000 for injuries sustained in a fall on an icy Prospect street sidewalk. It was one of the largest settlements ever awarded by a jury in this type of case in local courts, according to Mrs. Olson's attorney, C. Henry Nicholson. Also extended in court this morning was the time for lawyers to prepare briefs in the suit brought against Warren County Memorial Park by local funeral directors and others who resent the park plan to expand its operation into other fields and still retain its tax exempt status as a "non-profit" corporation.

Workshop on Aging Is Held at Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP)—A branch of Gov. Leader's Committee on the Aging has urged greater use of out-patient facilities for elderly people in order to avoid putting them in institutions.

A workshop session Tuesday on the health and institutional needs of the state's aging population stressed the need for boosting out-patient services. It also urged improved standards at county and nursing homes.

The one-day meeting, attended by some 20 persons, also suggested that nursing and county homes increase their use of out-patient facilities.

Out-patient treatment is that given to persons who need care, but are not necessarily in need of full-time hospital treatment.

RULING ON BUS PLUNGE

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP)—The death of a St. Louis man who plunged from a window of a moving Greyhound Bus was ruled a suicide Tuesday by a Bedford County coroner's jury. The victim, Iwan Galindir, 48, plunged from the bus last Saturday on Route 220, about two miles south of Bedford, and then was struck by a car driven by Victor Perdev, 34, of Bedford.

Flash of Genius Aids Bucs To Wallop the Giants 4 to 3

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A flash of genius hit Manager Danny Murtaugh, Ted Kluszewski hit the ball and the Pittsburgh Pirates hit the San Francisco Giants for a 4½-game lead in their run for the runner-up spot in the National League.

That's how the Bucs made off with a two-game sweep over the Giants Tuesday night. They won 2-1 on Murtaugh's handy hunch after winning 4-3 in the completion of a game left hanging since July 27 by Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew.

Bill Mazeroski led off the nightcap ninth with a double for the Pirates. Dick Groat drew an intentional walk, and Billy Hall was batting with an 0-1 count when Murtaugh got the flash.

Kluszewski took Hall's place and broke the 1-1 tie with a single. The Pirates cut Milwaukee's lead to 6½ games, but the Braves reduced their magic number to nine en route to their second straight pennant by beating Cincinnati 3-2. St. Louis beat the Chicago Cubs 8-7. Philadelphia ended its losing string at seven by beating Los Angeles 4-3 after a 6-2 success in the completion of another July 27 game.

Frank Thomas, who had hit a two-run homer for a 3-3 tie before the curfew sounded in Pittsburgh six weeks ago, drove in the winning run with a single as play resumed in the eighth inning.

The Braves won with two runs in the ninth, counting the clincher on a two-out error. Singles by Ed Mathews, Hank Aaron and Frank Torre tied it 2-all against Don Newcombe. After a walk loaded the bases, Brooks Lawrence came on in relief and retired Billy Bruton and pinch hitter Del Crandall on popups. But Wes Covington's easy grounder then went through George Crowe's legs at first and the Braves bagged it.

Newcombe (6-12) lost it. Bob Rush (8-5) was the winner, relieving rookie Curt Willey after eight innings.

Head Coach at St. Marys Will Quit This Year

ST. MARYS, Pa. (AP)—William Oleszewski, head football coach at St. Marys High School for the past two years, is quitting at the conclusion of the current season, Nov. 17.

Oleszewski, a native of Jeanette, will continue to teach history and social studies. His teams have won 21 straight games over the past two years.

Oleszewski submitted his resignation to the school board Monday night. The board accepted the resignation with regret and praised him for his action to continue through the season.

Oleszewski said he is hopeful of devoting full time to teaching and guidance counseling sometime in the future.

Frank Sirianni, CVCC Golf Course Expert, Leaving For North East Soon

Frank Sirianni, popular assistant golf course superintendent at Conewago Valley Country Club, resigns this Saturday to take over management of the new Lake View Country Club course now building at North East.

Frank, who has been at CVCC for five years as a "greens man", had assisted his father who is course superintendent.

The elder Sirianni, John, is believed to hold a "course record" for spending the longest time as links manager at one country club. He went to work in 1918 at Conewago Valley Country Club for Pete Olson who was the first course manager. The next year John took over and has supervised the first rate nine-hole course the 40 years since.

Excellence of Frank's ability was shown by nationally known golf course designer Jim Harrison who personally recommended the CVCC assistant superintendent over others who had completed the full turf course now available at Penn State and were offering their services at a considerably smaller fee.

In the past few years the greens at CVCC 3200-yard course have become known as among the finest in this area, equalling or surpassing even the turf at Kahwika Club in Erie.

The Lake View course now being seeded at North East is, according to Frank, an 18-hole championship links of some 6900-yard length. It will boast some of the largest greens in this part of the country, with some measuring 7500 square feet. Largest at CVCC is the second, which is approximately 4500.

The Lake View development, which is to include eventually a swimming pool, park area and housing, is being built now by bond issue and the golf course will be a municipal one. However, in the future it may become a private course, according to Frank. It is expected to be open for play by next June.

Among the improvements made at Conewago Valley links by Frank and his father in recent years include "perfected grass" on the greens, meaning a grass which is just right in texture for golf. A close watch must be kept on it, with insecticides and fungicides handy, for a fungus can ruin one of these greens within three days.

The eighth hole at CVCC was moved down the hill, with the green taken down piece by piece like tile. The ninth hole was shortened to par 4 when the tee was permanently moved forward, but par for the course remained 36 when Frank and his father moved the tee on hole No. 2 back 75 yards into the woods and upped its par to 5.

Frank is married to the former Eileen Briem of Olean, and at home, 401 Poplar street, are daughters Mary 10, Ann 5, Judy 2, Helen 1, and son, Frank, Jr., aged 3. Family will stay in Warren until housing is procured.

John Sirianni, who came to Warren from Italy when he was 16, lives at 720 West Fifth avenue, with his wife, the former Josephine Manno, whom he met in Warren. They have three other children, Rose Guiffre, Mike, a contractor, and John Jr. at Edinboro College.

John, incidentally, does not restrict his green thumb magic to grass. The backyard of his home has a beautifully rolling back yard (without a weed, says John), plus walled tiers of many varieties of dahlias, petunias, mums and roses, among other flowers, plus cucumbers, tomatoes, grapes, etc. There are also strings of lights crisscrossing the rear yard, strung between peach and pear trees. (All the flowers, incidentally, are grown from seeds saved and carefully nurtured from the year, or years, before.)

John has worked with all CVCC golf pros, from Harold Smith to Toby Lyons to Chuck Jones to Paul Porter to Fred Lindstrom. Also, the stewards, Louise Eckstrom, Bill Strong, Mrs. Morine, Larry Krespan and Ralph Blakely.

MERCHANT OPENING; K. OF C. MEETING
Merchant League at Penn Bowling Center has an opening for one team in their Thursday night competition at the Penn alleys. Interested persons are asked to contact the alleys at 815 Pennsylvania avenue east, or League Secretary Jack Larson.

Junior Industrial League that rolls Friday evenings at 7, also has a few industrial openings to fill out teams. Contact the alleys or Secretary Larson.

K. of C. Bowlers are reminded of the special meeting Thursday night after the regular council meeting.

TURF EXPERT—Frank Sirianni lines one up on one of the finest greens in this section of the country at Conewago Valley Country Club. Recognized as an outstanding understudy of his father who is CVCC golf course superintendent, Frank has accepted a position with Lake View Country Club at North East.

Prospects for Expanding Major League Baseball

Third of a Series
by HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas has been talking about major league baseball for several years but until now has a concrete move been made. This one is only in the exploratory stage at that.

The late Dick Burnett, who owned the Dallas club in the Texas League, started the talk as far back as 1948. And in 1954 he offered to put up a quarter of a million dollars and get others to do the same. The others wouldn't come through.

Burnett died in 1955 and there was no further agitation until this year when Fort Worth, a city 30 miles to the west, suggested an alliance with Dallas in obtaining a stadium suitable for major league baseball. It would be built between the two cities and the cost would be borne by revenue bonds on which there would be an election.

Talk turned up all over the place. But backers of the project decided to first feel the pulse of the people through a survey to determine the potential of major league baseball in the area.

Until that survey is completed—in about mid-November—there will be nothing done. If the survey is favorable, the stadium project will be launched.

The stadium probably would be located at Arlington, midway between Dallas and Fort Worth.

Neither Dallas nor Fort Worth has a suitable baseball park for a major league franchise.

Dallas and Fort Worth long have been members of the Texas League, a class AA circuit that has encountered rough sledding in recent years.

Fort Worth, leading the league, is about even with last year's attendance but that wasn't very good—just 75,188. Dallas drew 123,561 last year but won't make it this season.

League President Dick Butler attributes the low attendance to the fact that Dallas hadn't until recently been able to get into the first division, plus the fact that major league baseball is brought to the area via television.

Right now football is the big sport in Dallas and Fort Worth. Dallas wouldn't support pro football though. Fort Worth wouldn't support Dallas' pro football either.

Friend and Groat Appearing On K. C. Sports Program

Two of the top members of the Pittsburgh Pirate squad and a former member of the club will be here October 13th to complete the list of celebrated luminaries at the first annual Sports Night Dinner of the Knights of Columbus.

Definite acceptances were received Tuesday from Bob Friend, leading pitcher on the Bucs' mound staff, and Dick Groat, shortstop and catcher, that they will be on hand for the big gathering of sports celebrities. They will be accompanied here by Nellie King, who retired from baseball this year after many colorful years as a moundman in the senior circuit.

With the Pirates now knocking at the door of the Milwaukee Braves in the race for National League honors, the coming of the two Pittsburgh stars should add new interest to the Sports Night celebration which will bring to Warren the greatest array of talent from the athletic world in the history of the community.

Further plans for the dinner on October 13th were mapped at a meeting of the committee in charge, held last night at the K. of C. rooms. The ticket sale is moving along briskly and a fine attendance is anticipated. The proceeds from the affair will be used for K. of C. Charities and the support of all fans is enlisted in making the event a real success.

Kid Outfielder Helps Sox Beat Boston by 4 to 1 Score

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Callison, the kid outfielder who was reluctantly returned to the minors for seasoning last spring, has come back battling for the Chicago White Sox in their second-place showdown with Boston in the American League.

Callison, 19, was recalled Tuesday from Indianapolis, where he led the American Assn. with 29 home runs. A few hours later he batted 3-for-3 as the White Sox beat Boston 4-1 behind the three-hit pitching of Early Wynn.

Callison, playing only his second year of pro ball in a jump from Class C, drove home the tying run with a double and scored on Wynn's winning single in a three-run sixth inning. Then he doubled and scored again in the eighth.

The White Sox victory postponed

New York's inevitable pennant clinching. Cleveland rapped the Yankees 9-2 and the Indians were still at it when rain stopped the game in an eight-run fifth inning.

Detroit defeated Washington 7-1 on Jim Bunning's three-hitter, and Kansas City socked five home runs, three by Preston Ward, in an 8-6 victory over Baltimore.

Russ Nixon, who had hit only six home runs, rapped a pair and drove in four runs as the Indians overhauled a 2-0 Yankee lead built on Mickey Mantle's 40th home run. Nixon homered leading off the big fifth against loser Murry Dickson (9-7) and Virgil Trucks, then hit a two-run double just before the rains came. Hal Woodeshick (4-6) was the winner, with two innings of hutch relief.

Williams Back In Lineup Slaps Out Two Bingles

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—Aspirants to the American League batting championship—move over. The kung is back and from all indications Ted Williams is able and ready to win his sixth title.

Sidelined by a virus attack since Aug. 24, Williams returned to the Boston lineup Tuesday night and slapped out two hits in a losing 4-1 cause to the Chicago White Sox.

However, he raised his average to .318 and is third in the league behind teammate Pete Runnels with .321 and Bob Cerv of Kansas City with .319.

Under similar circumstances last year, Williams came off the sick bed and put on a tremendous spurt to win the batting title with a .388 average. That was his fifth. Others came in 1941 (.406), 1942 (.356), 1947 (.343) and 1948 (.369).

Looking thinner and a bit wane, the 40-year-old outfielder side-tracked questions on his chances of winning the batting title this year. He looked a lot better at bat. He clubbed out two of the three hits Boston collected off Chicago's Early Wynn and missed getting still another on a great stop by third baseman Billy Goodman.

P.A.A. Backs Plan To Make Radar Legal in Pa.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Automotive Assn. Safety Committee backed a proposal today that radar be made a legal means of enforcing state speed laws.

In endorsing the use of radar the P.A.A. Committee recommended that it be limited to the state police.

The action by the committee at a one-day meeting Tuesday stems from a recommendation by Gov. Leader's Traffic Safety Council last week that the Legislature legalize use of radar not only for the state police, but also for municipal police departments.

INTRODUCING 1958 DRAGONS

BIG BILL MERVINE

JIM OLSON

LOU MASCARO

A yearly favorite on the gridiron is Dragon's big Hooktown center, Bill Mervine. Also returning to helmets and shoulder pads for his fourth year, the 6'5"-220 pound senior also extended his ability on the hardwood for two years, receiving one letter, and on the track squad three, also one letter. "I think that Warren High Dragons should be one of the better teams in this part of the state if we can maintain the proper attitude," Mervine said. Playing offensive and defensive last year and this, Big Bill is on the bandwagon for "Back the Dragons", expressing his opinion to fans concerning their support: "In my opinion fan support is a necessity because it encourages the boys to put out 100 per cent." Son of Punch and Marcia Mervine, 1211 Conewango avenue, Bill's plans include prelaw at Haverford.

Coach Ralph Veights will have 6 foot-185 pound Jim Olson in tackle position for the season opener Saturday against Corry Beavers on Memorial Field. Another fourth-year gridder, 18-year-old Olson has received two letters in the sport. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hagerman, RD 2, Warren, Olson is a senior in Warren High this year, expecting to attend forestry school after graduation. Jim played both offensive and defensive positions last season, expecting to do same this year. In answer to what he thought about the team's position, he commented, "I think we will do very well, we have good spirit this year." Pertaining to fan support, Jim replied, "It is very important to a team. I hope the fans show up this year because I think they will see a new team on the field."

A big name in Warren High football for past four seasons, has been Lou Mascaro. Lou was put into play on several occasions in his freshman year, a tough man then and now to get around. Lou was inserted into quarterback and halfback positions last year, expecting to be used in fullback, also, this season. A 17-year-old senior, Lou is the son of Helen and Eugene Mascaro, Oakview, RD 1. Playing both offensive and defensive positions, Lou will be used as the same for 1958. Lou has received two letters in football. The 5'9"-165 pound back said, "I think with our added experience we will be tough to beat," adding, "I think good fan support makes you play harder." Planning to attend college after graduation and become a physical ed and health instructor and a football coach, Mascaro paid tribute to his coach, Ralph Veights, "We have the best coach in the district—if we don't win it is the fault of the players and not the coach." Fans are reminded of "Back the Dragons" promotion now on. Season tickets are now on sale at Warren High school office.

in and a .297 batting mark. Power's current .317 is the third best average in the league, and only six points behind the leader, Pete Runnels of Boston. He is tops in the junior circuit with nine triples, third in total hits with 167 and second in doubles with 34.

Gordon Says Two Indians Rate Most Valuable Awards

By LARRY FRIEDMAN
CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians—way down in sixth place and having trouble pulling fans through the home gate—have a pair of young players Manager Joe Gordon believes should be high in the running when the American League's most valuable player is chosen.

If you high-rate base hits, dash on the basepaths, and fancy-Dan infielding, your preference between the two would be Vic Power, who will be 27 next November.

If you're a long-ball lover and put a high premium on runs batted in, Rocky Colavito, the Tribe's strong-armed, 25-year-old outfielder would be your man.

Just three months ago, Colavito was on the trading block. Now he has 34 home runs, 96 runs batted

RALPH RECEIVES NEW GRIDDER FOR DRAGONS

With the opening grid contest three days away, head football coach Ralph and Bernie Veights received a prospective Dragon gridder last evening in maternity ward at Warren General around 8 p. m. David Ralph Veights, weighing 7 pounds and 3 ounces, was delivered to the mentor and his wife just in time for last minute scrimmages before the Corry-Warren game Saturday. It is expected full time will be personally devoted by Veights to his charges, the past week being on the "uneasy" side. The squad was jubilant this morning, hoping to run Little David at fullback position.

Frank and John Sirianni are currently engaged in developing a "pitch & putt" green to the east of Frank Fournier's Warren Motel in Starbrick. To be completed in about a week, it will be in use for the first time next spring. Mr. Fournier also plans a 20x40 foot swimming pool to be in operation next summer east of the putting green. Further plans call for a driving range behind the motel, but that is still in the future. All facilities will be for motel patrons and invited guests only.

Murtaugh Praises Face for Latest 'Save' for Bucs

By GEORGE ESPEY
PITTSBURGH (AP) — "You know," Danny Murtaugh was saying, "20 years from now when they're looking through the record books and they come across Roy Face's won-lost record, they'll probably say, 'gee, this fellow didn't do much.'"

"But he's done a hell of a job. When it comes to making awards, he should be given consideration for the terrific job he's done."

Face made his third appearance in four days and 54th of the season Tuesday night for the Pittsburgh Pirates who defeated the San Francisco Giants 4-3 in a playoff of a suspended game and 2-1 in a regularly scheduled contest.

With the score tied 1-1 in the regularly scheduled contest, the Giants put runners on second and third with two out in the ninth. That sent George Witt, who was trying to become the first National League pitcher to win seven consecutive games this year, to the show.

Murtaugh flashed the fire alarm signal and in came Face, a little right-hander from Stephenstown, N.Y. He casually walked to the mound brimming with confidence.

He threw his fork ball to pinch-hitter Bill White. White grounded to Bill Mazeroski. Face had proved a stopper again.

Face received credit for his fifth victory against two defeats.

But his won-lost record doesn't tell the story. He has saved 24 games this year, high in the major leagues.

Major Leaguers Decide Changes In Rules Needed

CHICAGO (AP) — The major leagues ended their meeting Tuesday in complete agreement that something must be done about the bonus rule, player draft laws and realignment of the minor leagues.

At a joint meeting of the American and National leagues, it was agreed that the bonus rule must be restored. A nine-man committee, headed by Cleveland General Manager Frank Lane, was appointed to study the possibility of a new bonus rule and to submit a plan at a December meeting in Washington, D. C.

Another six-man committee was named to start a series of meetings to bring about realignment of the minor leagues from AAA classification on down. This group also was instructed to have a working plan ready for the winter meeting.

In addition, the two leagues gave the radio-TV problem some thought. Another half million dollars was allocated to the minor league emergency fund established for the purpose of helping deserving minor league clubs in financial difficulties. An original half million dollars given to Bill DeWitt, co-ordinator of the fund, is nearly exhausted.
